

2023-2024 Student Cohort

The cohort will focus on a practical, actionable curriculum making a specific connection to equity. The calendar will span across the academic year and include: four virtual cluster conversations (2 in fall, 2 in spring), four in-person skill-building workshops (2 in fall, 2 in spring), four virtual coffee hour sessions with the WLI executive board (2 in fall, 2 in spring), the fall kick off, and spring capstone.

WHAT YOU WILL TAKE AWAY BY BEING A MEMBER

- Participation in meaningful conversations with experienced and successful women leaders from diverse backgrounds
- Experience building a professional network
- Opportunity to be mentored by colleagues, WLI Executive Board members, and Alumnea
- Involvement with a custom curriculum designed to provide encouragement and practical advice for a leadership journey
- Exclusive scholarship opportunities

CONSIDERATIONS

To be considered for the Women's Leadership Institute cohort, a student must:

- Be a currently enrolled Michigan State University student
- Be considered in good academic standing
- Complete the full student application

Commit to the following:

- Attend keynote events during the fall semester and spring semester
- Attend virtual cluster conversations and in-person workshops scheduled throughout the year
- Produce and present of a learning portfolio

Joining the cohort has empowered me to believe in myself and gain confidence in my purpose. Throughout the different sessions I've learned the vitality of accepting my authentic self and using setbacks as a motivation and opportunities for growth.

This cohort fosters connections between a diverse set of female leaders. Whether you're looking for mentorship, networking, empowerment, new friends, or all of the above, this is the place where you'll find it.
